The inhabitants in Fjellberghavn are in chock. The city's popular dentist has been gunned down and killed on his way to work. Just hours later, the police headquarter is set on fire, and a man perishes in the flames.

Sheriff Ole Vik realizes that both the dentist and several others have received threatening letters from an anonymous person. Amid all the chaos, a bomb threat is presented for the police: A box of dynamite is placed somewhere in the centre of Fjellberghavn, ready to blow up. The deadline is short, the exact location unknown. Ole Vik starts his no time to lose to find the unknown perpetrator.

Written in Blood is the Fourth book about Ole Vik.
