Publisher: Aschehoug, 2024
Category: Children's
Pages: 123

Anything can happen when you have a best friend from space.

When Albert and Ibbi are considering disbanding the Mystery Patrol because they can't find any mysteries, they discover that something unexplained is hiding in the attic. What could it be? Or who could it be? They suddenly have more than enough mysteries to investigate. And maybe they'll also gain a new friend?

Milo's universe is an illustrated book series for younger readers, perfect for those who want to read on their own. The Space Rabbit in the Attic is the first book in the series.

Pahle has also published a four book children's series about Kass & Tycho (2019-2023). It mixes adventure, mystery, science, comedy, personal intrigue and engaging characters on an epic, interstellar canvas, while always putting the young protagonists center stage.

Literary goody bag: The author is contagiously enthusiastic and plays their way through the universe.

Dagbladet, on Kass & Tycho

The series about Kass and Tycho is boundless, imaginative, confusing, irritating, and funny. If you like the first book, just dive into the rest.
