THE HANGMAN

EQUAL BEFORE THE LAW - SECOND BOOK

Original title: Bøddelen
Like for loven - bok 2
 Publisher: Cappelen Damm, 2026
 Category: Fiction
 Pages: 160

Bestselling crime writer Ørjan N. Karlsson, author of the highly successful Jacob Weber series, returns with the second instalment in his new series of fast-paced crime novellas.

When the criminal organisation Tāqat attempts to establish itself in Oslo, a violent conflict erupts with the motorcycle gang Devils Rejects. With vast profits from drugs, weapons and prostitution at stake, neither side is willing to back down.

Police investigators Henrik and Malin are at the centre of the fight against the escalating gang violence. When Devils Rejects leader, Odin is arrested in a dramatic police operation, they believe the immediate threat has been contained. But the conflict is far from over.

A sharp, suspenseful crime story about organised crime, loyalty and the brutal struggle for control.

Ørjan N. Karlsson is, if you ask me, one of Scandinavia's best crime writers, because The Night Travels Alone will take your breath away. The way I see it, very few writers in Norway keep delivering successful crime novels time and again. About The Night Travels Alone
